Dedication

MR. CORBETT S. GAINES

Mr. C. S. Gaines, now serving as chairman of the Goldston School Board of Education, has endeared himself to the students of Goldston School. They recognize in him a comrade of youth and a warm friend.

As a youth Mr. Gaines accepted Goldston School as his own and has shown his willingness to serve for the continued advancement of the school not only by his generosity but also by his interest in the school's progress.

Students and faculty alike would praise him for his unselfishness, reward his reasonableness and practicality, and know his kindness.

To the love and accord that is already his, the Senior Class of 1952 inadequately adds its tribute.

In Memorium

In the fall of 1951, many students were shocked to hear of the death of Miss Louise Womble. She had been closely associated with Goldston School since her enrollment as a first grade student.

She established herself in the hearts of the students whom she taught as an upholder of the highest ideals. She lent her personality and sober guidance to the molding of children and the general progress of the school.

CLASS POEM

The years have passed, the goal now nears.
 Just yesterday—those twelve long years!
 We've labored hard, and now it's done—
 Through hopes and fears—it has been fun!
 The path sometimes seemed long and gray,
 But it's changed to a brighter day;
 For with our colors, red and white,
 Our battle has been lighter to fight.
 To most of you along the way
 We owe the joy of this new day,
 For your kind words and deeds and thoughts
 Are the main gifts that we have sought.
 Now, as we are leaving these halls,
 Loudly every student calls—
 Oh, memories of work and play,
 Nothing shall take your charm away!
 Our hearts swell with joy, thrill and pride,
 Because you have stood by our side,
 And, now, whatever life shall send,
 We'll always love you to the end.

Class History

Often history is considered rather dull, and it seems that each class has only a repetition of facts to offer; however, we seniors of 1952 feel that we have accomplished much.

We entered Goldston High School in 1940. The following year Mr. G. P. Cullipher succeeded Mr. W. F. Veasey as our principal. We should like to extend thanks to Mrs. Milton Garner, Miss Nina Ferguson, Mrs. Faye C. Moore, Miss Catherine Ward, Miss Louise Womble, Mrs. Mary A. Barber, and Mrs. Helen Jeffrey for carefully and patiently guiding us into high school.

Twenty-seven of us began high school as Freshmen. In this class we found Phillip Gaines, Ray Sam Garner, Hazel Hart and Bobby Welch to add to our group. Our homeroom teacher was Principal G. P. Cullipher. We elected for our officers: Donald Barber, President; Eloise Gaines, Vice-President; Doris Jean Myers, Secretary; Jearline Hancock, Treasurer; Katie Mae W. Oldham, Room Representative. Members belonging to the Library Club were Victoria Moore, Ray Sam Garner, and Doris Jean Myers.

During our Sophomore year we lost J. C. Hillard, Berry Poe, Martha Garner, Ray Sam Garner, Hazel Hart, Leonard Barber, Carroll Johnson, Raymond Wilkie, James Mashburn, Bobby Welch and Doris Jean Myers. We added to our roll Willie Stanly, Gordon Elkins, Richard Baker, and Laura Beal. We elected for our officers: President, Richard Baker; Vice-President, Phillip Gaines; Secretary, Isabelle Campbell; Treasurer, Lucy Fields; Room Representative, Donald Barber. The waiters and waitresses selected to serve at the Junior-Senior Prom were Victoria Moore, Billy Cullipher, Eloise Gaines, Donald Barber, Isabelle Campbell, and Hal Oldham. Serving on the paper staff were Billy Cullipher and Hal Oldham. Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Vann Oldham.

For our Junior year we twenty-one were eager to take part in more activities. Those leaving us that year were Laura Beal and Willie Stanly. Billy Rives became a member of our class. Our officers were President, Phillip Gaines; Vice-President, Richard Baker; Secretary, Isabelle Campbell; Treasurer, Betty Ruth Campbell; Room Representative, Donald Barber; our homeroom teacher, Mrs. Ralph Leonard. Phillip Gaines won first place in the Declamation Contest. Members who belonged to the Beta Club were Lucy Fields, Victoria Moore, Isabelle Campbell, Donald Barber, Lynn Moses, Hal Oldham and Billy Cullipher. On the paper staff were John Oldham, Donald Barber, Richard Baker, Phillip Gaines, Hal Oldham, and Billy Cullipher. Those driving buses from our class were John Oldham and Billy Rives. We gave the Seniors an "Old Fashioned Garden" style banquet. At the banquet Phillip Gaines gave the toasts to the Seniors; Victoria Moore, to the Guests; Isabelle Campbell, to the Faculty; and Billy Cullipher, to the Waitresses. Class marshals were Lynn Moses, Victoria Moore, Billy Cullipher, Lucy Fields, Isabelle Campbell, and Hal Oldham.

Nineteen of us enrolled as Seniors, for we had lost Richard Baker and Lucy Fields. Donald Barber was President of our class; Billy Cullipher, Vice-President; Marie Powers, Secretary; Phillip Gaines, Treasurer; Gordon Elkins, Room Representative; and our homeroom teacher, Mrs. Vann Oldham. Members driving buses were Gordon Elkins, Billy Rives, John Oldham and Katie Mae W. Oldham. Those on the annual staff were Phillip Gaines, Billy Cullipher, Gordon Elkins, Donald Barber, Victoria Moore, Eloise Gaines, Pearl Elkins, and Jearline Hancock. The paper staff accepted John Oldham, Isabelle Campbell, Victoria Moore, Hal Oldham, and Billy Rives. Serving on the Library staff were Jearline Hancock, Eloise Gaines, Phillip Gaines, Gordon Elkins, and Billy Cullipher. During the year we lost Billy Rives to the Air Force. The school representative to the Lee County Fair Beauty Contest was Eloise Gaines. Those belonging to the Student Council were Roger McMillan, Ruth Elkins, Betty Ruth Campbell and Marie Powers. Members of this class belonging to the Beta Club were Victoria Moore, Isabelle Campbell, Lynn Moses, Donald Barber, Gordon Elkins, Hal Oldham, and Billy Cullipher. We selected for our mascots Anne Rives and Ronnie Gaines; our colors, red and white; our flower, red rose; and our motto, "Do more—wish less."

Our history has been twelve long years filled with many smiles and few tears. The recalling of these years will always bring us pleasant memories.

To everyone who has helped us and who has patiently watched our progress—Thank You. May we live up to your expectations and our own dreams.

VICTORIA MOORE,
Class Historian

School Queen

MARTHA ELOISE GAINES

Eloise was elected by the football boys to be their Homecoming Queen. Further honor was accorded her when she was elected by popular vote from the high school students to represent Goldston High School in the queen contest sponsored by the Sanford Lion's Club.

Class Song

We began in this school
To write our song—
Listen to our class now singing—
Pushing along—
It's been fun to work—
We've done no wrong—
So for you we are prepared—
To sing this song.

We can count to ten—
And read and write—
You can hear our hearts beating —
We've won our fight—
We have learned a lot—
But hearts are light—
For we know that we must say
To you, good-night.

We are saying good-bye—
You're not to blame—
If you hear our voices bringing
Our school great fame—
You have given your best—
We've played the game—
As we leave Goldston we hope
To stay the same.

We are moving along—
We can not stay—
We can hear the voices ringing—
"You have done your part;
Be on your way."
As we sing our old class song
On this last day.

Senior Class Prophecy

I am sitting before a magnificent television set looking into the future—1962—where I see the great successes and happinesses of the Senior Class of 1952.

The first person I see is Ruth Elkins, a typist in one of Goldston's large factories.

Next, I see Eloise Gaines modeling for a large New York magazine.

Now, Pearl Elkins the happy wife of Willis Brown, living in Bennett, North Carolina.

Jearline Hancock, a successful physical culturist and beauty shop expert, next appears.

Here is Victoria Moore who has taken Mrs. Oldham's place teaching English at the large Goldston High School.

Now, I see Marie Powers who has just won the Pulitzer Prize for her novel on American Culture.

There is Donald Barber who has his own electrical appliance and furniture store!

Who is this distinguished gentleman I see now? Ah, it is Lynwood Moses, a professor of Math at Duke University.

Next, I see Isabelle Campbell who has just written a book on "Personality and Power".

Ah, there is Katie Mae Wilson who is living happily in California with her husband, Jack Oldham, and their two children.

Phillip Gaines appears managing his father's large lumber company.

Next I see John Oldham, who is the successful owner of many sawmills.

There is Roger McMillan, a professional football player.

There comes Hal Oldham, who has a good job as depot agent in Goldston's large new depot.

Who is this I see now? No one but Bill Cullipher, principal of the new ultra-modern Goldston High School.

Here is Anna Poe, a nurse at Duke Hospital.

Ah, that is Betty Ruth Campbell, operating a unique gift shop carrying suitable presents for people you dislike.

And last of all, I see Gordon Elkins, who has become famous for his manufacturing of silk hosiery which will not run.

GORDON ELKINS, Prophet

Last Will and Testament

The 1952 Goldston Senior Class being of sound mind and good disposition and considering it is fairly well settled that we are to graduate this year, do hereby devise, give and bequeath our several belongings to the following persons, in this our first and last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the Juniors, the right to sing as they change classes, also, ten packages of throat tablets.

For the Sophomore Class, a locket containing a list of our mistakes as a class and a trunk containing the records of our scholastic, athletic, and individual attainments.

For the Freshmen, our class picture, for their inspiration when the way seems hard and long.

For our teachers, a signed testimonial stating that we have come through our high school days with an unexcelled record in the matter of heart action and cranial expansion.

To Goldston School, a large barrel of sparkling gratitude drawn from the deepest wells of memory, and kept cool and refreshing by large chunks of cold common sense supplied by the Principal.

ARTICLE II

To Johnnie Gaines, Phillip Gaines' place as quarterback on the football team.

To Elvette McIver, John Oldham's position as bell ringer.

To Elva Oldham, Isabelle Campbell's size.

To Jeter Dowdy, Gordon Elkin's gift of gab.

To George Caviness, Roger McMillan's place as captain of the football team.

To Sylvia Fields, Victoria Moore's place in the Beta Club.

To Augusta Hancock, Jearline Hancock's place on the basketball team.

To Peggy Harris, Pearl Elkin's ability to hold a man.

To Jean Taylor Johnson, Ruth Elkin's dependability.

To J. T. Griffin, Betty Ruth Campbell's studiousness.

To Margaret Sharpe, Anna Poe's title of "Best-all-round."

To Leonard Barber, Billy Cullipher's place at the radiator.

To Jackie Miller, Donald Barber's place as co-captain of the football team.

To Raymond Elkins, Hal Oldham's position on the paper staff.

To Maxine McIntosh, Eloise Gaines' title of "Homecoming Queen".

To Shirley Wilson, Kate Wilson Oldham's ability to play basketball.

To Shelby Wicker, Marie Powers' place as co-captain of the basketball team.

To Joe Thomas, Lynwood Moses' ability to get to school on time.

Signed and sealed—this—the seventh day of January in the year of 1952.

KATIE MAE OLDHAM

A fitting introduction to the sports' section of the Gold-Stone is a picture of Kate, Goldston's ace basketball player and All-Stater. Kate showed her ability to hit the basket immediately upon her arrival in high school four years ago. Every year she has led the team from victory to victory, and thousands of spectators have thrilled at the sight of her steady aim and agility on the hardwood at Goldston.

This year the girls' basketball team won the Bennett Lions' Tournament, and the Goldston Lions' Tournament. Jearline Hancock, Marie Powers, and Katie Oldham will not be on the team next year. So long, girls. It's been good to know you!

FOOTBALL

Seated: Gene Causey, Bill Cullipher, Roger McMillan, Donald Barber, Johnny Gaines, Phillip Gaines, Elvette McIver, John Palmer, Wesley Miller, Manager.
Standing: Coach Presnell, Bobby Trogdon, George Beal, Charles Daniels, Ernest Willette, Joe Thomas, Jerry Oldham, Jackie Miller, Lynn Moses.

Goldston's football team ran many yards to win more fame for Goldston School. The team's success may be attributed in large measure to the fine defensive play by the entire team, while the offense was strong enough to control the ball and keep it from opponents most of the time. The team had great spirit under the efficient coaching of Coach Presnell, which accounts for the fine record made. The squad possessed power, speed, weight, intelligence, experience, no squad dissension, and fighting spirit with a desire to win. The team was made up of five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, and four freshmen who continuously played hard and clean and performed well as a unit.

Next year when the signal to play ball is given, Donald Barber, Phillip Gaines, Roger McMillan, Bill Cullipher, and Lynn Moses will be missed by the team and its football fans.

Thanks, Seniors, for doing a good job well; and thanks, Team, for your splendid display of sportsmanship on the football field.
